

Jamie Notarthomas: Fact Sheet

Artist Name: Jamie Notarthomas

Musical Style: Modern Folk music with rock, blues, and jazz influences

Hometown: Syracuse, New York

Current CD: "Climbing out of the 20th Century"

Instruments: Acoustic guitar, vocals, harmonica, stand-up bass

Other Albums: "Heads or Tales" (1995, with band)
"Jamie Notarthomas" (1990, with band)

Record Label: Soulamander Productions

Website: <http://www.jamienotarthomas.com>

Points of Note: Jamie Notarthomas is a veteran of the independent music scene, with three studio albums to his credit, along with a live recording and inclusion on numerous compilations. His most recent studio album, "Climbing out of the 20th Century," is a return to the pure acoustic folk approach that he is so well known for in his live performances.

Jamie has toured extensively over the past fifteen years. Averaging over 200 shows a year, Jamie has spread his music and positive message to fans throughout the Northeast. With an amazing repertoire of both originals and covers, his reputation as a versatile and dedicated performer has earned him a devoted following and the respect of fellow musicians.

With new material always in progress, Jamie is currently working on a fourth album from his home in upstate New York.

Contact Info: Soulamander Productions
PO Box 247
Sylvan Beach, NY 13157
phone: (315) 762-1234
e-mail: soulamander@jamienotarthomas.com